

Research, Reflect, Rehearse

Connect organisation research, your own evidence and natural spoken preparation.

WHAT THIS EDITION HELPS YOU DO

Create a one-page preparation note that improves both your answers and your questions.

HOW TO USE THE WORKING PAGE

Read this preview, then complete the next page before your next application, interview or offer conversation. The value is not in collecting advice; it is in making a decision visible enough to act on.

This is a sample briefing for educational reading. It is not a historic newsletter send and does not guarantee an interview, offer or outcome. Framework reference: University of Michigan Career Center — Interviewing Resources.

Make the next step concrete.

Before your next interview, what should you know about the organisation—and what must you know about your own relevance?

WORK THROUGH THESE THREE PROMPTS

Record three signals about the organisation's current priorities or operating context.

Match each signal to one relevant experience, skill or question.

Practise the connection aloud in bullet points rather than memorising a script.

YOUR ONE-SENTENCE COMMITMENT

The action I will take before my next career decision is:
