

Make the next step concrete.

Choose one change story, one problem-solving story and one learning story. What makes each useful beyond a single question?

WORK THROUGH THESE THREE PROMPTS

Write the situation in one sentence; keep context short enough to leave room for your action.

Name the decision, judgment or contribution that was distinctly yours.

State the result and the lesson you would carry into the target role.

YOUR ONE-SENTENCE COMMITMENT

The action I will take before my next career decision is:

Educational guidance only. Further reading: MIT Career Advising & Professional Development — STAR method.